

Proper Seat Belt Mounting

(Stock Car Application)

Shoulder harness should be no higher than level with top of driver's shoulders.

When using HANS type head and neck restraint, compensation for device thickness will be necessary to determine correct shoulder harness anchor position.

